

IPMPDU
SAN LUIS

April 24 – 26, 2008

Registration starts early on the 24th day of April 2008

Native chicken is being offered during the Opening Ritual

The Brgy. Capt. welcomes the participants

The Datus and Baes took their lunch at Don Alejandro Gym

Datu Benjor Mansolunay explains the vision of MIPCPD to his constituents.

The Manobo-Banwaons actively participated during the Open Forum conducted by Sgt Arlee ne Mordeno

Datu Bawan Jake Lanes lectures about "Knowing The Enemy".

The Manobo-Banwaon tribe eat together during breakfast on the second day of the activity in San Luis

The different tribal leaders explained the "Dasang" which was about the history of the Manobo-Banwaon tribe .

Datu Bawan Taga Enod Jake Lanes explained the functions of MIPCPD Local Chapter

Datu Lipatuan Joel Unad delivers his inspirational talk

Datu Bawan Jake Lanes explained the set up of the Baganis

One of the participants raise his query

One of the participants raise his query

Datu Bawan Taga Enod Jake Lanes discusses TF "Gantangan" and its vision

One of the Datus clarifies something with regards to TF "Gantangan"

The Manobo-Banawaon share a simple but enjoyable lunch

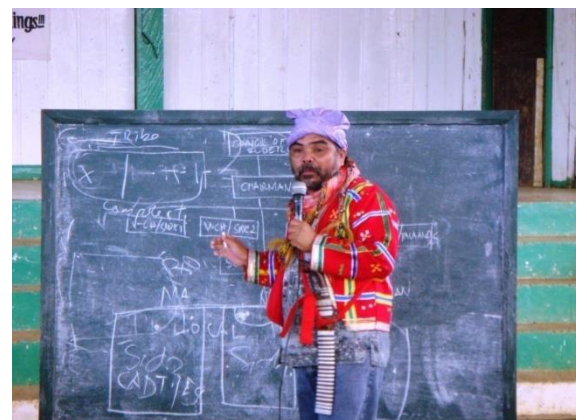

NGOs and Tribal leaders furthered their discussion in smaller groups

Datu Lipatuan Joel Unad explains the MIPCPD organization to the Manobo-Banwaon tribe

Day 3 starts with a quiet breakfast

The program starts with the Panawag-tawag (opening ritual)

The opening prayer is being led by Datu Mambiyah Benjor Mansolunay , CADT Chairman

Sgt Arlene Mordeno (INF) PA leads the National Anthem

Datu Manhumagpay Katangkawan Gumansil of the Banwaon tribe gives his testimony

Testimonies from the victims of CPP/NPA/NDF

Datu Ramon Bayaan, MIPCPD Vice Chairman for Internal Affairs delivers his message to the tribe