

IPMPDU
LA PAZ

28-30 APRIL 2008

Streamers posted at the gymnasium, Poblacion La Paz , Agusan Del Sur

Ritual called "Pamalas"

Lumads of Agusan del Sur line up for the registration

Tribal leaders and baganis alike listens intently about the topic "Knowing The Enemy"

Datu Lipatuan Joel Unad shares the Obu-Manuvu experience on how the CPP-NPA infiltrate the Lumads.

The leaders of La Paz introduce themselves

The regional coordinators and bagani leaders stand before the participants as Datu Joel and Datu Ramon encourage them to unite for their own good.

Tribal dancers displayed their skills in the art of their native dance

3rd day started with the opening ritual called "Pamalás"

Opening prayer followed by the national anthem

Tribal dances day 3

Guests (representatives from LGU/GLA and military) listen intently to the speeches given by the MIPCPD leaders.

Pakang or peace pact between the Manobo of La Paz and the AFP. The Manobo tribe gave the 26IB a "sabli"; while TF "Gantangan" Commander gave his personal US-made M4 as a manifestation of the AFP's sincerity in its partnership with the IP sector.

LTC CENTINO, Bn Comdr of 26th IB gave his inspirational message to the tribe.

Guests from the different GLA's each gave little speeches.

One tribal leader shares the tribe's bitter experience in the hands of the CPP-NPA.

Message of TF "Gantangan" Commander COL ALLEN A CAPUYAN

Photo Ops of all the participants with their guests.

Bagani forces of Manobo, La Paz, Agusan del Sur.

The SOT team, the AFP unit representatives and the guests from LGU/GLA were invested into the tribe.

