

IPMPDU
MONKAYO

30 April – 02 May 2008

Backdrop for the event in Poblacion, Monkayo, Compostella Valley

Registration for the "Kaimunan" of the Manobo-Mandaya-Dibabawon,-Manguangan Tribal Assembly

Opening ritual

Part of the ritual is drinking of the “Shi Hok Tong” or native wine

Sacrificing the pig for the sanctification of the ritual

Closing part of the ritual includes tribal dancing

Datu Bawan Taga Enod Jake Lanes orients the members of the tribe of what is in store for the duration of the IPMPDU

As part of the program for the AFP to be informed of the territories of the IP delegates and routes of the CPP-NPA, this map is being marked by the soldiers and Lumads alike

Open forum with SOT Officer Lt Pensona & MIPCPD Chairman Datu Pananag Joel Unad

A talk from the MIPCPD Vice-Chairman Datu Ramon Bayaan

Participants share their points and thoughts during the open forum

Datu Martin Dumacon shares the Matigsalog tribe's bitter experience with the CPP-NPA

A participant spills his thoughts about

Chairman of MIPCPD Datu Joel Unad

Sharing experiences they had in their tribe

An intermission tribal dance performed by members of the tribe and of their guests.

Tribal leaders speaks for their tribe

Elected local chapter officers of MIPCPD

Tribal leaders are giving their comments about the topic in human rights violation

Ritual for the "baganis" or the tribal defense warriors

Closing ritual for the bagani forces

Celebrating the ritual for the "Kaimunan"

Singing of the national anthem

COL ALLEN A CAPUYAN, Commander of Task Force Gantangan delivering his privilege speech.

"Tampuda" or peace pact between the Manobo, Mandaya, Dibabawon, and Manguangan tribe and the AFP during the "Kaimunan"

Closing ceremonies of the peace pact

Banquet for the guest and Itribal eaders

Guests of honor and tribal leaders present at the kaimunan