

IPMPDU
LINGIG

16 – 18 JUNE 2008

Streamers posted at the gym at Poblacion, Lingig Surigao del Sur

Participants are slowly arriving one by one heading straight to the registration table

Datu Bawan Taga Enod Jake Lanes talks about the MIPCPD and its functions.

Lipatuan Joel Unad discusses the strategy of the CPP-NPA in grabbing the power of the datos and the ancestral domains.

Introduction on the subject "Knowing the Enemy"

Ritual called "Panagwagtawag" to call on spirits' blessings upon the entire event

Datu Benito Blonto shares a story of his tribe and quoted some words from the Bible as he recount the state of their people

RA 8371 or IPRA Law is discussed by Manolo "Lolong" Sibugan

Plotting on the map where the enemy route is proved to be a very easy task for the locals of Lingig

One of the officers from the local assembly of the MIPCPD giving his speech

Local officers of the MIPCPD shares some stories about the tribe

More members of the MIPCPD local office speak out for the tribe

Film showing about a poor peasant who became a CPP-NPjA rebel but was later killed by his NPA comrades in "Huwad na Pangarap"

Datu Bawan Taga Enod Jake Lanes explains what MIPCPD is all about

Ritual

Introduction to the program

The leader of the tribe gives his introductory remarks

Oath taking of the elected local officers of the MIPCPD

Flag ceremony

Opening remarks

Introduction of the next part of the program which is the investiture of AFP officers and representatives from the LGU/GLA

Ritual of adoption

Investiture rites

The Manobos' of Lingig (above) and the LGU/GLA (below)

Sinugbahan" or Peace Pact between the Manobos and the AFP

Peace pact of the Manobo tribe and the AFP together with the witnesses from the different sectors of the government

Closing ritual

A pig gets sacrificed in the ritual

Peace pact signing